"Pa" Frank Belt left Paducah last night with one game out of three to his credit. The trick was turned yesterday afternoon at Wallace park after the heavy rains when the Indians were in no shape to play ball, appearing to be slow on their feet and with little energy.

"Chief" Lloyd became ill and Perry was substituted after Lloyd had made a bad error, Perry made one good play, assisted by Wetzel, but the game went slow from the beginning. The game was stopped in the eighth inning by rain, but was an easy victory for the Belites from the start.

Platt was in the box for the locals and was out of form. He was hit with ease and a total of nine bingles was tabbed against him. Scores were made in the sixth and eighth innings and in both innings errors killed the visitors' chance of earning a run.

In the sixth inning Copeland doubled and Berte made first on Haas' error. Hackett went to first on Platt's error and Hughes grounded out. Lutzshaw doubled and Copeland and Berte scored. Hagel struck out and Brown retired the side with a grounder to Quigley 4 to Haas. Two runs.

In the eighth inning Berte singled and Hackett made first on Cooper's error. Hughes tried to bunt the third strike and made out. Lutzshaw's hit to Cooper was fielded to Quigley, forcing Hackett out at second. Hagel walked and Brown hit to Lloyd. Lloyd dropped the fly, scoring Berte. Hughes and Lutzshaw. Belt singled, scoring Brown. Patrick retired the side with a flyout to Taylor. Four runs.

In the ninth inning the visitors started batting but rain stopped the game after one had been retired.

ball and yesterday won its twenty-third game. It defeated the Cairo team by a score of 8 to 0, and a Paducah boy was in the lineup. He is Bob Hayes, catcher, and played star ball. The feature of the game was the work of Stevens, the Princeton pitcher, who struck out 17 and pitched a no hit, no run game.

Dope.

Even the best pitchers have an off day, and it happened to be Platt's yesterday. The big southpaw was easily found by the Belites but had been properly supported he might have won his game.

Taylor, Cooper and Platt were the only Indians able to connect with Patrick yesterday. Patrick is the man Cairo turned loose. "Pa" Frank Belt thinks he has a good twirler in him.

Today is Ladies' Day and the Danville team is here to meet the Indians for three games. Following Danville will come Vincennes and then Cairo. There are nine more days of ball here this "at home."

Attendance at the Wallace park ball grounds continues to be bad and the management is greatly discouraged.

Grover Land seems to be a letter writer. He writes every chance he gets, and it is said that not a week passes but what some Paducah friend gets a letter from the Big Man. He writes when he does not play ball—that is, this is what Platt alleges. Judging from the number of letters he has been sending here this is not far from a "sure shot."

Land is injured now, however, and is out of the game with a bad leg. He will stick it out, but hopes that Manager Grillo will let him off in time to come to the old "stamping" ground and catch a game or two for the Indians.

Good Story.

The following story is going the rounds of Gen. von Budd, one time minister of the German railway. He was in the habit of occasionally seeing personally that all the rules were carried out. One day he was in a first-class carriage when a gentleman entered and calmly lighted a cigar. The general waited for some time and then touching him on the arm pointed out that the rules did not permit of smoking in non-smoking cars. The gentleman looked at him a moment and then making a motion as though brushing away a fly, went on without speaking. Von Budd decided to make a grand coup, so he took out his card case and handed his card to his fellow traveler, who gave it a glance and put it in his pocket, went on smoking and at the next station descended. The minister, much irritated, decided to give him a lesson, so told the station people to find out his name as he had a complaint to make against him. The gentleman, asked for his name, put his hand in his pocket and presented a card at which the station master bowed profoundly and allowed him to leave the station. Then returning to Von Budd, he said: "You had better keep your complaint to yourself; look, his card says he is Gen. von Budd!"

Negroes on the Canal.

It will be impossible to drop the negroes entirely, but it is the view of Chairman Shonts and the other members of the canal commission that it is unsafe to depend on negro labor which has been found so unsatisfactory; and efforts will be made to recruit the forces of workers from other sources, especially from white countries. The experience at Panama is but another argument in favor of white immigration to the south. White immigrants can work as well here as in any other part of the country, if not better; and we can feel confident that their labor will return better results. The old theory that the white man is not able to do good work in the south has been thoroughly exploded, not only of the southern states of the union, but even of the Latin-American republics of the tropics.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The Economy of a Straight Line

The National Cigar Stands Company is an easy, uninterrupted, straight-line channel between tobacco planter and cigar smoker.

The tobacco makes only one stop on the way—at the factory where it is turned into cigars. It pays only one small fare for the whole trip.

It used to go in a roundabout way, from planter to leaf-broker, from broker to cigar-maker, from cigar-maker to cigar-jobber, from cigar-jobber to retailer, from retailer to you. It paid a fare—that is, another profit—at every stage.

The National Cigar Stands' plan saves four stages and four fares. That is why the cigars sold by them give Drug Stores that conduct National Cigar Stands can be distinguished by the emblem on the windows and the new, scientifically designed cigar-keeping case, with which all National Cigar Stands are equipped, and which maintains the cigars in the proper smoking condition at all times.
